In 2014, the Department of Education (DepEd) in the Philippines introduced the ALS Modules as a core component of the Alternative Learning System (ALS), aiming to provide flexible, accessible, and inclusive education for out-of-school youth, adults, and other marginalized learners. The ALS Modules 2014 were designed to address the educational needs of Filipinos who, due to various circumstances, could not participate in formal schooling. These modules are part of the government's broader goal to promote lifelong learning and ensure that every Filipino has access to quality education regardless of their age or background. This article delves into the background, features, content, implementation, and significance of the DepEd ALS Modules 2014, offering a comprehensive understanding of their role in Philippine education.

Background of the ALS Program in the Philippines

Historical Context and Development

The Alternative Learning System (ALS) was established in the Philippines as a response to the need for non-formal education pathways that cater to learners outside the formal school system. The ALS program was formally institutionalized through Republic Act No. 10533, also known as the "Enhanced Basic Education Act of 2013," which emphasized the importance of flexible learning options. Prior to 2014, the ALS was primarily focused on adult education, out-of-school youth, and marginalized groups, with various pilot projects and pilot modules being tested.

In 2014, DepEd officially launched the revamped ALS Modules, aligning them with the K to 12 Basic Education Program and ensuring they meet national standards. The goal was to make the modules more learner-centered, competency-based, and aligned with the curriculum frameworks used in formal schools.

Objectives of the ALS Modules 2014

The primary objectives of the ALS Modules introduced in 2014 include:

- Providing accessible education to out-of-school youth and adults.
- Offering flexible learning options suited to learners' schedules and circumstances.
- Enhancing learners' competencies in core academic areas and life skills.
- Preparing learners for accreditation and certification to validate their learned competencies.

- Promoting lifelong learning and inclusive education.

Features of the DepEd ALS Modules 2014
